Come ‘Celebrate the Arts’ Oct. 7

Local musicians, vocalists, dancers and artists will be in the spotlight at Northland Pioneer College’s Snowflake/Taylor – Silver Creek Campus Performing Arts Center for the Fourth Annual Celebrating the Arts Festival on Saturday, Oct. 7, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This free event for the whole family will include an ice cream social from 1:30 to 3 p.m., compliments of Bashas in Taylor and Safeway in Show Low. There will be free popcorn throughout the day, and Chow Hound Catering will be on campus to stave off the hunger pangs with BBQ specialties and items from Samauri San’s.

Scheduled to appear will be the Northland Master Chorale, Snowflake High School Mardigals, Halau O Kanoelani hula dancers, Tawna Flake-Posegate & David Peterson, White Mountain Symphony Orchestra String Quartet. The Martindell Family, NPC Dance Theatre Class, Raks Matana Caravan (the Gift of the Dance) American Tribal Style Bellydance, and the White Mountain Symphony Orchestra String Quartet.

There will be visual arts displays, and college financial aid information will be available.

Tickets for the November dinner theatre performances of Once Upon a Mattress and Neil Simon’s The Dinner Party and season tickets for the White Mountain Symphony Orchestra will be available at the festival.
