3 WAYS TO SEARCH

DIRECTIONS FOR SPECIAL SEARCHES

The screenshot shows the Northland Pioneer College library website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, Sign In, and a logo. Below this is a main menu with tabs for Start, Search, Lists, My Account, and Help. The Search tab is selected, and a dropdown menu is open, showing options: Simple Search, Browse Search, Power Search, My Searches, and Frequently Asked Questions. A red arrow points from the text '3 WAYS TO SEARCH' to the Search tab, and another red arrow points from the text 'DIRECTIONS FOR SPECIAL SEARCHES' to the 'How To...' section in the left sidebar. The left sidebar contains sections for Search (with links to Simple Search, Browse Search, Power Search, My Searches, and Frequently Asked Questions), Useful Links (with links to Library Info, Ask a Librarian, Library Databases, Citing Sources, Research Guides, Course Reserves, Distance Learners, and Librarian's Tools), and How To... (with links to Search for Children's books, Search for short stories, fairy tales, myths, legends, Search Professional Development materials, and Search Videos for Instruction). The main content area on the right shows a search form with a text input field, a 'Go' button, and a 'Powered by EOS International®' logo. Below the search form, there is a section titled 'Browse Search' with search tips and examples.

Search Tips: Subject searches require use of Library of Congress Subject Headings; Author Searches require typing the last name first; Title searches begin with first significant word of the title (ignore a, an, the).

Browse to Specific Entry: Select a field from the drop-down menu with the arrow. Type words - see Search Tip - click on the "GO" button. Example:

Look for: TI (Titles) Begins with: midsummer night
Look for: SU (Subject) Begins with: pottery. mexican
Look for: AU (Author) Begins with: erdrich, louise

SIMPLE SEARCH USES KEYWORDS

The screenshot shows the Northland Pioneer College library website.
