DISPASSIONATE LANDSCAPES

Michael Collier • Rose Houk

August 20 - October 18

Artist Lecture: Thursday October 18, 1 - 2 PM
White Mountain Campus Learning Center, Rm 101

Dispassionate Landscapes features aerial photographs along with text by Flagstaff photographer, Michael Collier, and author Rose Houk. The images highlight industry's presence across the greater Colorado Plateau, and challenge viewers to explore and examine these often polarizing land uses in a more nuanced way.

The subject matter focuses on copper and coal mines, power plants and wind farms, and reclamation and recreation areas. Two captions accompany each photo—one discusses qualities of the affected landscape and the other examines the benefits of these industries and activities.

EMPTY BOWLS 2018

Empty Bowls is an international grassroots effort to fight hunger. Artists and educators work with the community to create handcrafted bowls. Guests from the community are invited to a simple meal of soup and bread. In exchange for a cash donation, guests are asked to keep a bowl as a reminder of all the empty bowls in the world. The money raised is donated to an organization working to end hunger and food insecurity. Learn more at: www.emptybowls.net

YOU ARE INVITED TO HELP US MAKE!

Two make-a-thons will be held at the ceramic studio at NPC. Everyone is invited to come and help us create bowls for the event. All ages are welcome; no experience is necessary.

MAKE-A-THON 1: SEPT 7 • 12 - 4PM

MAKE-A-THON 2: SEPT 21 • 12 - 4PM

Groups of 4 or more, please schedule a making session at least 24 hrs in advance by contacting Magda Gluszek: 928-532-6176 or magda.gluszek@npc.edu

COMMUNITY EVENT: NOV 16 • 11AM - 3PM

Bowls created by the community will be available at the event for a $10 donation which includes a serving of soup and bread. Soup will be provided by Persnikkity's Cafe in Show Low. Bread will be provided by Karen's Country Bake Shop in Lakeside. All donations will benefit The Love Kitchen in Pinetop.
