

NPC Friends and Family is Pleased to Offer the AndyVon Baccalaureate Bound Academic Scholarship*

*for students who are members of a Federally Recognized Indian Tribe (Hopi, Navajo, White Mountain Apache)

This scholarship provides $3,000 to one Northland Pioneer College student each year who is a member of a Federally Recognized Indian Tribe (Hopi, Navajo, White Mountain Apache), who has graduated from NPC with an associate degree, and is entering a baccalaureate degree program at an accredited college or university in the fall semester following their NPC graduation.

Criteria:

- Applicant must have earned an associate degree (AAS, AA, AS, ABUS, AAEC, AAEE, AGS) at Northland Pioneer College in the academic year prior to the awarding of the scholarship, as evidenced by transcript.
- Applicant must have a cumulative GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale at the time of application, verifiable by transcript.
- Applicant must have the recommendation of two NPC faculty.
- Financial need, as demonstrated by the FAFSA Submission Summary, will be considered but is not mandatory.
- Before receiving the scholarship funds, the successful awardee must provide NPC Friends and Family with documentation that the awardee is enrolled full-time in the upcoming semester in a baccalaureate program at an accredited college or university.
- Awardee must write a letter of thanks to “Dear AndyVon”, and email it to NPCFF@npc.edu before funds will be disbursed.

Tribal affiliation (Certificate of Indian Blood) may be verified at the time of award.

To Apply:

Submit the following application documents electronically, as a single .pdf, to NPCFF@npc.edu

1. NPC Friends and Family Scholarship Cover Letter Form (must be completed, signed, and dated)
2. University Degree Plan: outlines the courses the applicant intends to take to complete a bachelor's degree in the next 2–4 years
3. Essay: a 500–1000 word essay, which addresses the following prompt:
 - Describe a major challenge that you have faced in your life and how you overcame it (or are working to overcome it).
 - Describe the challenges that you anticipate over the next five years as you leave home, complete your bachelor's degree, and go on from there to further studies or a career.
 - How will your past experiences help you to overcome these new challenges?
 - How will you use your baccalaureate degree to give back to your community?
4. NPC unofficial transcript, indicating your cumulative GPA, and verifying that you have completed the required credits for graduation from NPC with an AAS, AA, AS, ABUS, AAEC or AAEE in the academic year prior to university transfer.
5. Letter of acceptance into a baccalaureate program at an accredited college or university.
6. Demonstration of financial status as evidenced by Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) Submission Summary (PAGE ONE ONLY).
7. Two letters of support from faculty at NPC that address the applicant's potential to succeed in a bachelor's program. These letters must be submitted electronically, in .pdf format, to NPCFF@npc.edu by the authors. DO NOT SUBMIT THE LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION YOURSELF.

Application Deadline: Thursday, May 22, 2025 at 12:00 p.m. (noon) MST., for funding for the Fall 2025–Spring 2026 academic year. Applications received after this date/time will not be accepted, regardless of why they are late. You are STRONGLY advised to submit your application well in advance of the deadline date!
