Who is eligible to apply?

NPC nursing students, either enrolled in (second-year) or accepted for (first year) the NPC ADN program who meet the following criteria:

- Enrolled in or accepted for the NPC ADN program – submit transcript or acceptance letter with application
- Enrolled full-time in NPC ADN program during the academic year of the award
- Cumulative G.P.A of 3.0 or better on a 4.0 scale
- Not in default of a student loan and not in overpayment status.

How do I apply?

Submit the following documents as ONE, SINGLE PDF FILE to betsy.wilson@npc.edu:

- Completed and signed NPC Friends and Family Scholarship cover letter
- Unofficial transcripts
- Copy of NPC Nursing Program acceptance letter – first-year students only
- Essay – 1,000 words or fewer, addressing the following topics:
 - Why are you pursuing a career in health care?
 - What are your plans for achieving a nursing career?
 - What is your view of the role of the nurse in the hospital and the community?
 - How will you use the scholarship, if awarded?
- Two letters of recommendation. These letters may be sent by the applicant as part of the single pdf application, but they must be on letterhead and/or include the recommender's complete address, phone number, and email, and they must include the signature of the recommender. Recommenders may contact betsy.wilson@npc.edu with any questions.

All materials must be RECEIVED on or before Tuesday, June 13, 2023 at 12:00 noon, MST.

Deadline for 2022-23 academic year is TUESDAY, JUNE 13, 2023 at 12:00 noon, MST. Applications received after this date will not be accepted, regardless of why they are late. You are STRONGLY advised to submit your application well in advance of the deadline date! Funds will be disbursed prior to the start of the Fall 2023 semester.
